“As a user researcher, I want to understand what is important to a group trying to organise a trip as a team.”

George

“I like to travel with friends, but it’s hard to decide on dates and locations. Also keeping track when we decide, so we don’t get mixed up.”

Victor

“I like to travel in a group it’s more fun. I hate not sticking to our budget list we end up buying more then what is needed.”

Erwin

“The problem with traveling in a group is keeping track of who paid for what. Like did they pay me back? Do I owe anyone?”

Research data

Who is involved with planning a trip?

“What we gathered from our research is that most of the group is not involved in planning the trip.”

“We also discovered it is difficult to keep track of budget and the team’s progression.”

"I like the idea and lay out. It doesn't work as you would assume. Check out splitwise for some ideas they make it super easy to split the bill. See what you can do to improve this part of site."

Recommendations

“Scan page not consistent. Make sure all tools are consistent and do not move per page. If you having and issue take it out of the budget log no need for it, it’s in the scanner. Minimize what on pages.”

“Really love what you did with it, looks great. Would be cool to show how we can save scanned receipt to trip. Im suppose to go to inbox, but what happen to the tool icon at the top. I should have to click to find it.”
